

G20 Peoples Summit 2011

The G20 - Limits and Potential to Reform the Financial System and to Promote Development

International Workshop

Thursday, 3rd November 2011, 14.00h -19:00h

Organised by:

Evangelischer Entwicklungsdienst (EED)

WEED - World Economy, Ecology & Development Assoc.

Venue: Nice; 8, Avenue des diables bleus Room: GRDF (C.M.C.A.S.)

Languages: English, French

Programme

1. Between the BRICS and the UN – Problems and Perspectives of the G20 in the System of Global Governance

Input: Peter Lanzet (EED), Bonn
Moema Miranda (ibase), Rio de Janeiro
Harsh Jaitli (VANI), New Delhi

2. Too weak, too late, too market friendly – Official Financial Reforms and Alternatives

Input: Peter Wahl (WEED), Berlin
Sarah Anderson (IPS), Washington
Kavaljit Singh (Public Interest Research Centre), New Delhi

3. Development, Food Speculation and the G20

Input: Phelisa Nkomo (Black Sash), Cape Town
Markus Henn (WEED), Berlin

4. Occupy the G20 – Civil society cooperation and strategy for the G20

Discussion with Harsh Jaitli, Gildas Jossec, Moema Miranda, Phelisa Nkomo, Kavaljit Singh

Moderator: Peter Lanzet